

“Progr. API” determines whether a system supports formulating queries using some native prog. language such as C++.

“+”: A system supports a given language. “⬆”: A system supports a given language in a limited way. “-”: A system does not support a given language.